Mayor's Youth Advisory Council Syllabus

- Description: The Mayor's Youth Advisory Council is an official youth organizational council established by the Mayor of the City of Driggs. The MYAC is established with the intent to provide the youth of Teton Valley an opportunity to voice their opinions, participate in community service, and share a role in the decision-making of our city issues. The Membership to the MYAC is upon nomination by a participating Mayor. Each member of the council shares in the responsibilities of the council.
- Application: If you are interested in participating with the Mayor's Youth Advisory Council, please fill out the attached application and return it to the front desk at City Hall no later than May 2nd, 2016.
- Attendance: Attendance is mandatory. The MYAC holds their monthly meetings at the City of Driggs City Hall on the second Tuesday of each month at 4:00 pm. In attendance at the meetings are participating Teton Valley mayors, and any other community members that would like to join the gathering. Each meeting is vital and the group works jointly with the mayors to address local current issues and brainstorm how to improve city conditions for the future generations and the present community. Participation in community service projects, speaking engagements, fund raisers and various activities is expected.
- Events: The MYAC are expected to volunteer many hours of community service and organize their own events and service projects to promote their council and give back to the community. Some examples of projects/events which may be of interest are: Community cleanup/Arbor Day, Independence Day Celebration, Association of Idaho Cities events, Snowfest, Other activities and events
- Benefits: MYAC is a great way to get involved in your community. Mayor Johnson or one of the participating mayors will write a letter of recommendation for all members who have sufficiently fulfilled their duties as a Mayors Youth Advisory Council members. This is a great benefit for college applications and looks great on resumes.
- Info: For additional information contact Annie Decker at adecker@driggsidaho.org or Mayor Hyrum Johnson at mayorjohnson@driggsidaho.org or call City Hall at 354-2362.
